

Product End of Life Information

Starting from January 1st 2024, the following will reach End of Life (EOL):

- Indiestor Pro Storage Manager
- Indiestor Rack
- Indiestor Mimiq + License Server*

 sold by Indiestor before July 2022*

What does this mean?

Perpetually licensed software and servers will continue to operate as usual. However, no further updates will be made available for these products.

How does this affect support?

Existing support plans will be honoured until expiry. Afterward, "Ad Hoc" support for servers can be requested at an hourly rate by contacting support@indiestor.com.

What if I need spare parts for my server?

If you require out-of-warranty spare parts, we will assist you in sourcing components from an approved supplier.

What about Indiestor Mimiq?

Hedge acquired Indiestor Mimiq in July 2022, which marked the end of development on the Indiestor version and categorised it as a legacy product. Users are encouraged to upgrade to Hedge Mimiq which offers a variety of improvements. On 1st January 2024, Indiestor will stop transferring MAC locked licenses sold before July 2022.
